PREFERRED FORMATS

We prefer advertisements in electronic format, either submitted on disk or delivered via e-mail. (Editor@TheAikenHorse.com) Electronic formats that we accept include Adobe InDesign, Adobe Illustrator, Adobe Photoshop, TIF, JPG, and PDF. Please be sure that all files are a minimum of 300 dpi at the size they will print and that all fonts are embedded. Please be sure that you submit your ad in CMYK mode. For formats not on this list or if you need help laying out your ad, please call us. (803-643-9960)

DESIGN CONSIDERATIONS

The Aiken Horse is a tabloid newspaper with a page size of 11" X 15." It is printed on newsprint at a 133 line screen. Artwork and photographs may print 5-15 percent darker than they appear on the computer screen. We do not recommend using four color type in any ads and recommend caution when using knock-out type, especially against a four-color background.

The Aiken Horse Distribution 2009-2010

The Aiken Horse is a free bimonthly newspaper distributed at tack stores, feed stores and businesses throughout the Aiken-Augusta area. The paper is also available at all major regional equestrian events. It is delivered to local hotels every Thursday, many of which put it in all their rooms. The Greater Aiken Chamber of Commerce gives the paper to visitors interested in the horse world. Numerous local realtors include the paper in their mailings to prospective customers. A few large businesses with offices in the area use The Aiken Horse as part of the information packet that they send to employees who are relocating to the area.

In addition, The Aiken Horse is included in the State of South Carolina's tourism program. This means that the paper is available at nine roadside South Carolina Welcome Centers.

Because Aiken has attracted so much interest in the horse world, the paper is in demand across the country. Issues are distributed in tack and feed stores in the equestrian areas of many additional states. We also have subscribers around the country. States where we distribute the paper include:

Alabama	Maine	North Carolina
California	Maryland	Ohio
Colorado	Massachusetts	Pennsylvania
Connecticut	Michigan	Rhode Island
Delaware	Minnesota	South Carolina
District of Columbia	Missouri	Tennessee
Florida	Montana	Texas
Georgia	Nevada	Vermont
Idaho	New Hampshire	Virginia
Illinois	New Jersey	Washington
Iowa	New Mexico	West Virginia
Kentucky	New York	Wisconsin

WEBSITE

The Aiken Horse maintains a website, www.TheAikenHorse.com. Each issue is completely digitized and posted on our site as a flash flip book. We have a growing worldwide audience with thousands of visitors from over three dozen countries. People who visit are reading; the average visitor zooms in on over 45 pages. Live links to advertisers' websites are available and we have heard from real estate advertisers that they have gotten inquiries from as far away as Dubai and Spain. The Aiken Horse website and blog have thousands of regular readers, and are at the top of Google's listings when internet users search for equestrian-related activities in the area.

DEMOGRAPHICS

The Aiken Horse targets a diverse market. The paper covers all breeds and disciplines, with an emphasis on the sports that are prominent in Aiken. These include eventing, dressage, foxhunting, show hunting and jumping, polo and driving. We also have regular articles on many western disciplines, especially cutting and barrel racing, which are popular in the area.

Horses in Aiken are a large and growing business and The Aiken Horse is an important part of that growth. A recent study conducted by the University of South Carolina found that the equestrian industry in Aiken contributes almost $72 million to the economy each year. Our readership includes equestrians as well as people in Aiken's active community of retirees, many of whom enjoy attending equestrian events. The Aiken Horse is the indispensable guide to the region's horse world.

We are currently printing and distributing 10,000 copies of each issue.
